

John Johns - The Forester's Photographer

The images of John Johns - the forester's photographer - are celebrated in the collection on this page and on the cover pages of this edition of the New Zealand Journal of Forestry.

The photos were selected by Lindsay Poole and are part of a collection of John's photographs held by the National Archives in Wellington (reproduced by permission).

Planting marram grass using single furrow planter, May 1964.

Sir Eruera Tihema Tirikatene. Attending the Greymouth Centennial Celebrations, May 1959.

Kauri-Omahuta Reserve. Tree No. 1 named Omahuta. Measurements: 55 ft to first limb, 45 ft D.H. Contains in board feet after allowing for taper 64,260 ft. From left: Forester J. Levy, Photographer J.H. Johns, Ranger of Omahuta Forest W.E. Fell.

Senior Protection Foresters Botany Course, Orongongo Valley, August 1962. Front row, from left: L. Boyd, H. Vipond, S.A. Fokerd, J. Johns, P.J. McKelvey, L. Purdon. Back: L.T. Pracy, M. O'Reilly, J.D. Corbo, T. Cookson.

Cover Page Captions. Photographer: John Johns. Front Page: Forestry Personalities. The Director-General of Forests Mr A.R. Entrican holding his final Monday morning meeting with his Senior Officers at Head Office, Wellington. March 27, 1961. Standing L to R: Messrs A.D. McKinnon, W.J.C. Kinloch, P.A. Reveirs, R.J. Wells, F. Allsop, G.C. Jupp and J.R.M. Goessi. Seated L to R: Messrs M.J. Hoffman, P. Burgoyne, A.N. Sexton, Director General of Forests, Mr A.R. Entrican, Assistant Director of Forests, Mr A.L. Poole and Mr W.H. Jolliffe. Back Page: Kauri Grove - Waipoua Forest. April 24, 1958.